MEMORANDUM

2 August 1951

To: Director of Training

From: Officer in Charge, Indoctrinating School, UTG/A
Alcott Hall

Subject: Weekly Report

1. The Fifth Class of trainees UTG/A were tested on 27 July 1951 and 18 students entered the 6 weeks training course at Alcott Hall.
2. Six different Offices were represented, and the average grade was GS 7.5, including one GS 13 and one GS 12. Trainees from OPC had an average GS of 6.3, composed of 2 GS 5's and one GS 9.
3. Total trainees, including those entering Alcott Hall three weeks earlier now total 41, including 3 graduate students. Total capacity of school, dictated by Rapid Reading equipment and schoolroom space, is 18 per class--several curriculum courses requiring both classes to meet simultaneously in one room.
4. The school is running very smoothly, with excellent student and staff morale and with full and increasing cooperation of the operating Offices and staffs.
